

April 2011

1) How many union officials does your organisation employ? By 'union official' I mean any person who receives wages, expenses or bonuses from your organisation and whose job remit includes liaison with any union, representing the workforce to any union or working on any union-related campaigns.

The Trust does not employ any union officials. Staff representatives, who are employees of the Trust, are permitted reasonable paid time off from their normal duties to undertake any union related duties.

2) For these individuals please provide:

a. The full job title of the individuals concerned

b. The total cost of the person's role (including the total salary, expenses and bonuses associated with them)

c. A brief job description for the individual's role and name of the person (I understand if you are not able to provide personal details, but would be grateful to receive this if you can)

d. The name of the unions the individual deals with (e.g. Unison etc)
