

August 2011

1. Please supply details of how many staff have left Southend Hospital NHS Foundation Trust with a redundancy payment and then rejoined the NHS, since June 2010

Since June 2010, no staff who have left the Trust with a redundancy payment, have been re-employed by the Trust. We do not hold information on staff who have received redundancy payments from this Trust who have subsequently been employed by another NHS Trust.

2. Please supply the total cost of redundancy payments made to staff who have left since June 2010 up to August 2011

The total cost of redundancy payments is £13,080.47.

3. Of the staff made redundant since June 2010 and August 2011, please detail how many of those were of each the following groups:

Qualified nursing, midwifery & health visiting staff - None

Qualified Midwives

Qualified Health Visitors

Qualified School Nurses

Total Qualified scientific, therapeutic & technical staff - None

Qualified Allied Health Professions

Qualified Therapeutic Radiography Staff

Qualified Diagnostic Radiography Staff

Qualified Speech & Language Staff

Qualified Healthcare Scientists

Other qualified scientific, therapeutic & technical staff

Support to clinical staff - None

Support to doctors & nursing staff

Support to scientific, therapeutic & technical staff

Support to ambulance staff

NHS infrastructure support

Central functions

Hotel, property & estates

Senior managers

Managers

Less than 5

We are unable to provide further details as this may lead to the identification of the individuals concerned. Accordingly, our response to this question is that less than 5 people have been made redundant from the Trust since June 2010.