

April 2012

I am working for a research consultancy, Credo Analytics, and am currently researching contracts obtained by the company Cory Environmental.

Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 I seek information about a contract which Southend University Hospital NHS Foundation Trust awarded to Cory Environmental for their role as contractor on the contract: UK-Westcliff-on-Sea: refuse collection services.

*I have provided a link to the source below:

Could you please confirm the following details regarding this contract:

1. The project start date and duration.

The Trust's current contract is for three years with a 2 x 12 month extension option. The main contract dates from 01/08/09 and runs to 31/07/12. If both extensions are exercised, then the contract will finish on 31/07/14.

2. The exact value paid to Cory Environmental for services rendered.

The current contract has a value between £50 -£60k per annum.
