

June 2012

1) In the last financial year for which you have the figures, how much did the hospital spend on works of art (including paintings, sculptures, prints, frames etc)

The Trust has not purchased anything that could be described as works of art.

Any pictures that are located around the hospital are for decoration purposes only and were purchased during the year for the hospital. The cost in its entirety was met by charitable donations.